

VRS is far and away the closest thing to being able to talk with deaf people the same way I do with those with normal hearing. It makes the old relay service with typing seem like the pony express. People who need assistance in using the phone deserve this equal access - quality services, on demand, 24-7. Please fund it appropriately.